
AAUW

South Lake Tahoe

The South Lake Tahoe Branch has been active since 1964. We uphold the goals of our national and state organizations and strive to design and offer programs, events and philanthropies that are relevant to the needs, interests and betterment of our local south shore community.

Monthly branch meetings provide interesting, topical and educational programs, and are open to the public, as well as members. The meeting times and locations can be found on our website, our Facebook page and in our monthly newsletter Women’s Words. Additionally, branch members are encouraged to participate in any of our interest groups which include:

- Book Club, Social Justice Book Club
- Let’s Go to the Movies
- Great Decisions Study Group
- Talking on Paper
- Cocktails and Convos

www.facebook.com/sltbranch

American Association of University Women (AAUW) is a nationwide network of more than 170,000 members and donors. Since 1881 AAUW members have examined and taken positions on the fundamental issues of the day - educational, social, economic and political. Our commitment to our mission is reflected in all aspects of our work. Membership in AAUW offers exceptional tangible and intangible benefits - a strong voice, a vibrant community, relevant information and valuable resources.

By joining AAUW, you belong to a community that breaks. Through educational barriers so that all women have a fair chance.

AAUW is an incredible value: representation, community, information, education and inspiration. You can find it all as part of AAUW.

Mission Statement

AAUW advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy and research.

Value Promise

By joining AAUW, you belong to a community that breaks through educational and economic barriers so that all women have a fair chance.
